MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION & ANALYSIS

Annaxure IV

OVERVIEW 1.

The demand for fartilizers in the country is directly linked to the health of agricultural sector, which, as is well known, has been passing through a difficult phase in the recent past. The output of agricultural sector, mainly loodgeting and observes, has failed to mach the targeted levels due to serve in reasons. This has resulted in virtually nil growth in the demand for Unsa and negative growth for DAP in the last failer wyater. As a next, supply continues to extering the consumption as of row-However, a tew good monscorts coupled with measures boing planned for the wall being of farmers could after the sconurio and improve the demand for lentifizers in the country.

SEGMENT WISE PERFORMANCE 2

Lines Plant

The operation of Urea plant continues to be satisfactory. Availability of natural gas from GAIL was not sufficient during the year causing utilization of high cost naphthe to supplement the fuel requirements. However, it is hoped that gas supply constraints will soon be taken care of with the availability of LNG on the west coast.

Price/realization levels for Urea Improved as compared to the previous year due to reduction in inventory carrying costs.

The Group Concession Scheme for Urea plants announced by the Government of India came into effect from April. 2003. This scheme replaces the Unitwise retention pricing scheme which was in force since 1977 in the Urea sector.

Taking advantage of the Gov's policy, your company proposes to debottleneck and revamp the Urea plant at Shahjahanpur to marginally increase its capacity and improve the energy consumption levels in order to jurther enhance the profileability of Urea operations.

DAP Plant

The DAP plant remained shutdown for about seven months during the year due to high levels of inventory and receivables. The strutdown period was utilized to revamp the Suphuric Acid Plant so as to increase the capacity utilization of the plant,

Ocean heights for dry buik carpo touched unprecedented lavels during the year pushing up the prices of key raw materials viz, nock phosphate and supplur. Since the concession on phosphatic tertilizers is calculated on the price of imported phosphoric add, the increase in the prices of nock phosphate and supplur had to be borne by the company, reducing the pridability of operations. This situation is, however, taking to be rectified during the year 2004-05 when the revised prices of phosphoric add are taken into account for the purpose of calculation of concession.

The Government of India also finalized the new scheme of concession for DAP effective from April, 2003 based on the recommendations of Tarift Commission.

HUMAN RELATIONS 3

Industrial relations at various locations of the company remain conduit. The management is constantly taking steps to equip and train employees at all levels to shoulder groater responsibilities. Total number of employoes as on March 31, 2004 were 2462.

INTERNAL CONTROL SYSTEMS 4

The company has internal control systems in place, Internal auch is being carried out by rotation at various operational areas and departments. The auchi reports receive highest priority by the management and are placed with management replica below the Audi Committee comprising of Independent nominees on the Board of the company. Periodic review and follow up of audio desarrations is carried out to edisure their implementation.

RISKS AND CONCERNS 5.

The fertilizer business in India is among the most regulated – production, distribution and pricing still being largely decided by the Government. The fertilizer industry, caught betwee rising input costs on the one hand and the government's computation to continue to make fertilizer is available a fail industry prices on the other, continues to suffer from ander recovery of reasonable costs of production. The fertilizer business and its profulability is critically dependent on policies to the government.

Another obvious risk in tertilizer business is the timely arrival and adequacy of monsoons in the country. Apart from demand, this factor affects the cash flows as well as interest costs as working capital needs of fartilizer companies go up.

In case of phosphalic segment, all the raw materials are imported and the risks pertain to raw material costs, ocean freights and exchange rate fluctuations.

OPPORTUNITY AND OUTLOOK 6

With new tantizer policies in place for both Urea and DAP sectors, it is clear that low cost producers will emerge successful in times to come, especially when the ora of decontrol downs. Both the plants of your contrary command the advantage of economies of scale and angles state-outh-ent toch-nologies resulting in low variable costs. With the government's focus on agriculture sector, it is hoped that the tot I armers will improve hereby pupping up the consumption of fartilizers. While the timuncial situation of your company in the short term is under stores, the directors are confident of a positive outlook in the medium to long term.

- (ii) With a view to encourage setting up of fertilizer plants in the country, the Government of India has been following a policy of granting the facility of duty free import of plant and machinery required for setting up the fertilizer plants. The Company has imported certain equipment for setting up fertilizer plants at Shahjahanpur and Paradeep and has furnished undertakings to customs authorities at the time of clearance of consignments. The liability, if any, would be ascertainable on the final reconciliation by customs authorities.
- (iii) The Government had levied an Import Pass Fee amounting to Rs.42.85 lacs for import of industrial alcohol in the State of West Bengal. The diminution in value of this investment is considered temporary and accordingly no provision is considered necessary in this regard.
  - (b) Market value of quoted investments at the close of the year was Rs.124.50 lacs (Previous Year Rs.342.78 lacs).
